THE GAZETTE OF INDIA : EXTRAORDINARY

THE DIGITAL PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION ACT, 2023

ACT NO. 22 OF 2023 [11th August, 2023]

Section 1. Short title and commencement.—

(1) This Act may be called the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023.
(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act.

Section 2. Definitions.—

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— (i) "Data Fiduciary" means any person who alone or in conjunction with other persons determines the purpose and means of processing of personal data; (j) "Data Principal" means the individual to whom the personal data relates; (k) "Data Processor" means any person who processes personal data on behalf of a Data Fiduciary; (t) "personal data" means any data about an individual who is identifiable by or in relation to such data; (x) "processing" in relation to personal data, means a wholly or partly automated operation or set of operations performed on digital personal data.

Section 4. Grounds for processing personal data.—

(1) A person may process the personal data of a Data Principal only in accordance with the provisions of this Act and for a lawful purpose— (a) for which the Data Principal has given her consent; or (b) for certain legitimate uses. (2) For the purposes of this section, "lawful purpose" means any purpose which is not expressly forbidden by law.

Section 5. Notice.—

(1) On or before requesting for consent, the Data Fiduciary shall give to the Data Principal an itemised notice in such manner and containing such aspects as may be prescribed, description of personal data sought to be collected and the purpose for which it will be processed.

Section 6. Consent.—

(1) The consent given by the Data Principal shall be free, specific, informed, unconditional and unambiguous with a clear affirmative action, and shall signify an agreement to the processing of her personal data for the specified purpose.

Section 8. General obligations of Data Fiduciary.—

(1) A Data Fiduciary shall, irrespective of any agreement to the contrary or failure of a Data Principal to carry out the duties provided under this Act, be responsible for complying with the provisions of this Act. (2) A Data Fiduciary may engage, appoint, use or otherwise involve a Data Processor to process personal data on its behalf only under a valid contract. (5) A Data Fiduciary shall protect personal data in its possession by taking reasonable security safeguards to prevent personal data breach.

Section 11. Additional obligations of Significant Data Fiduciary.—

The Central Government may notify any Data Fiduciary or class of Data Fiduciaries as Significant Data Fiduciary based on volume and sensitivity of personal data.

Section 12. Right to access information about personal data.—

The Data Principal shall have the right to obtain from the Data Fiduciary confirmation whether personal data is processed.

Section 36. Power of Central Government to call for information.—

The Central Government may, for the purposes of this Act, require the Board or any Data Fiduciary or intermediary to furnish such information as it may call for.

Section 44. Amendments to certain Acts.—

(1) In section 14 of the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India Act, 1997.
(2) The Information Technology Act, 2000 shall be amended in the manner specified in the Schedule.
